COMMENTS ON PETITION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND

Trinity Christian Center of Santa Ana, Inc., d/b/a Trinity Broadcasting Network ("Trinity"), by its counsel, hereby submits the following comments on the "Petition for Leave To Amend" filed July 22, 1993, by Glendale Broadcasting Company ("Glendale").

1. Glendale's amendment reports the fact that the Presiding Judge has designated a character issue against Glendale in the Miami proceeding (MM Docket No. 93-75). Glendale urges that there is no reason to designate the same issue against Glendale in this proceeding, suggesting instead that any grant of Monroe's application in this proceeding could be conditioned upon final Commission action in the Miami proceeding.

No. of Copies rec'd

2. Trinity agrees that there is no need for a separate hearing in this proceeding on the Glendale character issue. However, because an adverse resolution of that issue in the Miami proceeding could (and, in Trinity's view, surely would) impair Glendale's basic qualifications in this proceeding, the Presiding Judge should adopt a ruling making clear at the outset of this proceeding that:

"Any grant of Glendale's application in the instant proceeding shall be subject to whatever action the Commission deems appropriate in light of the final resolution of the issue specified in Memorandum Opinion and Order, FCC 93M-469, released July 15, 1993, in MM Docket No. 93-75."

In the event that the Miami proceeding is terminated for any reason before completion of a full hearing on the Glendale character issue specified therein, Trinity reserves the right to move that such hearing be transferred to this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,
